Children's Holiday 2007

About the holiday...

The holiday is a fun, action-packed week giving children an opportunity to take part in a range of exciting activities and to meet new friends.

We believe that on a Child holiday, children can build positive working relationships with both adults and their peers, and are also contributing to a team ethos throughout the duration of the holiday which helps develop their sense of self responsibility.

A team of dedicated volunteers donate the time, energy and enthusiasm required to ensure that the children enjoy themselves and make the most of their Child holiday experience.
